Think of the Children! Pediatric Solid Organ Transplantation

Session Date: 03/15/2022

Session Time: 11:00 – 11:45 AM (CST)

Target Audience

This continuing education (CE) session was planned to meet the needs of professional staff who deal with the selection and monitoring of medication(s) as part of their patient care duties, including pharmacists, RNs, APRNs, PAs, MDs.

Activity Overview

The field of pediatric solid organ transplantation has experienced considerable growth and improvement in patient and allograft outcomes over the past 20 years. However, long-term survival of the allograft continues to be a challenge among all organ types. Care for the pediatric transplant population can be challenging due to limited data and trials, pharmacokinetic and pharmacodynamic differences when compared to adult counterparts, intricacies of medication formulations, and medication adherence concerns. This presentation will review the unique challenges of caring for pediatric transplant recipients as well as explore the data behind select clinical controversies in this population.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this knowledge-based CE session, participants should be able to:

1. Describe pediatric-specific differences in pharmacokinetics as it applies to commonly used immunosuppressants
2. Discuss concerns related to medication formulations, monitoring, and adherence in the pediatric population
3. Review pediatric solid organ transplantation pharmacotherapeutic controversies in immunosuppression and infection prevention
