Pitter Patter, Let's Get ATTR: Medications for Transthyretin Amyloidosis Cardiomyopathy (ATTR-CM)

Session Date: 03/28/2023

Session Time: 11:00 – 11:45 AM (CST)

Target Audience

This continuing education (CE) session was planned to meet the needs of professional staff who deal with the selection and monitoring of medication(s) as part of their patient care duties, including pharmacists, RNs, APRNs, PAs, MDs.

Activity Overview

In recent years, transthyretin amyloid cardiomyopathy has been identified as an underrecognized cause of heart failure. Non-invasive diagnostic techniques and new medication options are changing the way this disease is identified and managed, but early detection is key. The 2022 AHA/ACC/HFSA Heart Failure Guidelines feature a new section titled “Cardiac Amyloidosis” which practitioners are likely less familiar with compared to the remainder of the guidelines. This presentation will review the basics of the disease state, guideline recommendations, and medication options.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this knowledge-based CE session, participants should be able to:

1. Recognize features of transthyretin amyloidosis cardiomyopathy
2. Recall 2022 AHA/ACC/HFSA Heart Failure Guideline recommendations for cardiac amyloidosis
3. Identify medication options for ATTR cardiomyopathy.
